4. The liability of members of the Company shall be limited to any amount unpaid on the shares held by the members.

PRIVATE COMPANY

5. The Company is to be a private company, and accordingly: –
 - (a) the number of members for the time being of the Company (exclusive of persons who are in the employment of the Company and of persons who having been formerly in the employment of the Company, were while in such employment and have continued after such employment to be, members of the Company) is not to exceed fifty but where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly, they shall, for the purposes of this paragraph, be treated as a single member;
 - (b) any invitation to the public to subscribe for any shares or debentures of debenture stock of the Company is hereby prohibited; and
 - (c) the right to transfer the shares shall be restricted as hereinafter provided.
6. None of the funds of the Company shall be employed, whether directly or indirectly and whether by way of a loan, gift, guarantee, security or indemnity, release or waiver, the provision of security or otherwise as defined under section 274 of the Ordinance, in the provision of any financial assistance for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase of or acquisition by any person of or for any shares in the Company, except as authorised by Subdivision 3 of Division 5 of Part 5 of the Ordinance.
7. Subject to the provisions of the Ordinance and these Articles and any resolutions of the Company in general meeting upon any increase of the capital of the Company, the shares shall be under the control of the Directors, who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons and on such terms and conditions and at such times as the Directors think fit, and with full power to give to any person the call of any shares and for such time and for such consideration as the Directors think fit.
8. As regards all allotments from time to time made, the Directors shall duly comply with sections 142, 143 and 144 of the Ordinance.

9. If, by the conditions of allotment of any shares, the whole or part of the amount or issue price thereof shall be payable by instalments, every such instalment shall, when due, be paid to the Company by the person who for the time being shall be the registered holder of the shares or his legal representative.
10. The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and the time of payment of such calls.
11. The joint holders of a share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all instalments and calls due in respect of such share.
12. Save as herein otherwise provided, the Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof, and accordingly shall not, except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, or as by Ordinance required, be bound to recognise any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person.

SHARE CERTIFICATES

13. The certificates of title to shares shall be issued under the Seal of the Company and signed by two Directors and countersigned by the General Manager or Manager or by such other person or persons as shall be appointed by the Directors.
14. Every member shall be entitled to one certificate for the shares registered in his name, or if the Directors so approve (upon paying such fee as the Directors may from time to time determine), to several certificates, each for one or more of such shares, and the Company shall complete such certificates and have them ready for delivery within two months after an allotment of shares as required under section 144 of the Ordinance or within two months after the date on which the transfer is lodged with the Company as required under section 155 of the Ordinance. 16. The certificate of shares registered in the names of two or more persons shall, unless otherwise directed by them, be delivered to the person first named on the Register.

CALLS

17. The Directors may, from time to time, make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively, and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and such member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to such persons and at the times and places appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by instalments.
18. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed.
19. Seven days' notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment, and to whom such call shall be paid provided that before the time for payment of such call the Directors may, by notice in writing to the members, revoke the same or extend the time for payment thereof.
20. If by the terms of the issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times on account of the amount of the share, every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice had been given, and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly.
21. If the sum payable in respect of any call or instalment is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being of the shares in respect of which the call shall have been made, or the instalment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same at such rate not exceeding ten per centum per annum, as the Directors shall determine, from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment; but the Directors may, if they shall think fit, remit the payment of such interest or any part thereof.
22. On a trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due for any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member sued is entered in the Register as the holder or one of the holders of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued; that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book; and that notice of such call was duly given to the member sued, in pursuance of these Articles; and it shall not be necessary to prove any other matters whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

23. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, and either in money or money's worth, all or any part of the sum due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the amount so paid or satisfied in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate as the member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon, or the Directors may agree with such member that the member may participate in profits upon the amount so paid or satisfied in advance. And the Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member three months' notice in writing of their intention.

FORFEITURE

24. If any member fails to pay any call or instalment on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
25. The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of such notice), and a place or places, on and at which such call or instalment or such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made or instalment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.
26. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls or instalments, interest and expenses, due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares, and not actually paid before the forfeiture.

27. A certificate in writing under the hands of a Director stating that a share has been duly forfeited shall be conclusive evidence of such forfeiture as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and an entry of every such certificate shall be made in the minutes of the Directors' meeting. The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on any sale or disposition thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
28. When any share shall have been so forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture, with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register.
29. Any shares so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Directors may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
30. The Directors may, at any time, before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they think fit.
31. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding, be liable to pay, and shall forthwith pay to the Company, all calls, instalments, interest and expenses, owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment, at the rate of ten dollars per centum per annum, and the Directors may enforce the payment of such moneys or any part thereof if they shall think fit, but shall not be under any obligation so to do.

LIEN

32. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for his debts, liabilities and engagements, solely or jointly with any other person, to or with the Company, whether the period for the payment, fulfillment, or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and no equitable interest shall be created in any shares except upon the footing and condition that Article 12 hereof is to have full effect. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.

33. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Company may sell, in such manner as the Directors think fit, all or any of the shares on which the Company has any such lien, but no sale shall be made until the period as aforesaid shall have arrived, and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators, and in default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfillment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements for seven days after such notice.
34. The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the costs of the sale and any other costs of enforcing the lien) shall be received by the Company and shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the said debts, liabilities or engagements and the residue (if any) paid to him, his executors, administrators, or assigns.
35. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for the purpose of enforcing a lien in exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Directors may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register in respect of the shares sold, and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

36. No transfer shall be registered unless a proper instrument of transfer has been delivered to the Company. The instrument of transfer of any share in the Company shall be in writing and shall be signed both by the transferor and transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
37. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing in the form contained in Schedule A hereto, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit, or in such other form as the Directors shall from time to time approve.
38. No member shall be entitled to transfer any shares otherwise than in accordance with the following provisions: -

- (a) a member desirous of selling his shares (hereinafter called "the selling member") shall give a notice (hereinafter called "the notice of sale") to the Company containing an offer to sell the same, and stating the number of shares which he desires to sell and the price which he is willing to accept for such shares.
- (b) the Directors shall thereupon send to each of the other members of the Company a circular containing the same particulars, and naming a day (being fourteen days after the receipt by them of the notice of sale) on or before which offers to purchase the same will be received. If on or before the day so named offers to purchase all or any of the shares referred to in the notice of sale at the price named shall be received from members of the Company, the Directors shall as agents for the selling member and the proposing purchaser or purchasers, declare a contract of sale to be concluded, and shall give notice thereof to the selling member and the purchaser or purchasers.
- (c) If the offers of purchase shall constitute together offers to purchase a greater number of shares than those offered for sale, the shares offered for sale shall be divided among the proposing purchasers in the proportions as nearly as possible in which they already hold shares in the Company: provided that no proposing purchaser shall be liable to take more shares than those he shall have offered to purchase, and any shares which cannot be so divided shall be apportioned by lot among the proposing purchasers. The selling member and the members declared to be the purchasers of shares shall give effect to the contract or contracts so made as aforesaid by the execution of proper transfers and the payment of the purchase money.
- (d) If within twenty one days after the service of the notice of sale on the Company the selling member has not received notice that his offer to sell is accepted on behalf of some member or members of the Company, he may within six calendar months from the date of serving the notice of sale sell or dispose of the shares referred to in such notice of sale, or so many of them as shall not have been agreed to be purchased by a member or members of the Company to any other persons, provided that such sale or disposal is at a price not less than that named in the notice of sale.
- (e) A notice of sale may be renewed from time to time, but the offer therein contained shall not be withdrawn until the expiration of twenty one days from the time of the service thereof on the Company.
- (f) If any person shall become entitled to any share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of any member he shall be bound forthwith to offer the same for sale to the members of the Company at a fair price, such fair price to be determined by agreement between such persons and the Directors, or in default of agreement by arbitration; and so soon as the said fair price shall have been determined the said person shall give to the Company a notice of sale in the manner hereinbefore mentioned containing as the price which he is willing to accept the said fair price and the same results shall follow as in the case of a notice of sale voluntarily given. If the said person shall fail to give such notice of sale the Directors may, as his agents, give the same for him.

- (g) Any member may transfer or by will bequeath any share held by him to a member or members of his family as hereinafter defined, and in such case the foregoing provisions shall not apply; and in the case of such bequest the executors of the deceased member may transfer the shares so bequeathed to the legatee or legatees. For the purpose hereof, "a member of the family" of any member shall include a husband, wife, son, daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grand-child, or other direct issue of such member, or a father, mother, brother, sister, nephew or niece of the deceased member but no other person.
- (h) Where any shares are held upon the trusts of any deed or will a transfer thereof may be made upon any change or new appointment of trustees, but the Directors may require evidence to satisfy themselves of the facts in relation to such transfer.

39. The Directors may refuse to register any transfer of shares to a person of whom they do not approve, and they may also refuse to register any transfer of shares:

- (a) on which the Company has a lien; or
- (b) in favour of a minor or a person of unsound mind or under other legal disability; or
- (c) registering in the name of a firm; or
- (d) which has not been duly stamped (if required).

If the Directors shall refuse to register a transfer of any share, it shall within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal, as required by the Ordinance. If the transferor or transferee requests a statement of reasons for the refusal, the Directors shall within 28 days after receiving the request send the transferor or transferee who made the request a statement of the reasons for the refusal.

40. Every instrument of transfer shall be left at the office for registration, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the Company may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares. All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the person depositing the same.

A fee not exceeding a sum as reasonably determined by the Directors from time to time may be charged for each transfer, and shall, if required by the Directors, be paid before the registration thereof.

41. The transfer books and register of members may be closed during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding in the whole thirty days in each year.

This Article is hereinafter referred to as "the Transmission Clause".
44. If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating his election. If he shall elect to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share to that person. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
45. The Directors shall have the same right to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission to any shares or his nominee, as if he were the transferee named in an ordinary transfer presented for registration.
46. A person so entitled to a share by transmission shall be entitled to receive, and may give a discharge for, any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the share, but he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled to exercise any rights or privileges conferred to a member in relation to meetings of the Company, including but not limited to receiving notices of or attending or voting at the meetings of the Company.

This Article is not by implication to curtail the power of modification which the Company would have if this Article were omitted.

53. The Directors may raise or secure the repayment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as they may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, perpetual or redeemable, debentures, or any mortgage, charge or other security on the undertaking of the whole or any part of the property of the Company (both present or future), including its uncalled capital for the time being.

57. Where any uncalled capital of the Company is charged, all persons taking any subsequent charge thereon shall take the same subject to such prior charge and shall not be entitled by notice to the shareholders or otherwise to obtain priority over such prior charge.
58. If the Directors or any of them or any other persons shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Directors may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge, or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to secure the Directors or persons so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.

Every notice convening an Annual General Meeting of the Company shall describe the meeting as an Annual General Meeting.
63. Any accidental omission to give any such notice to, or any non-receipt of any such notice by any of the members entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.

In determining attendance for the purposes of quorum, it is immaterial whether members attending a meeting are in the same place as each other.
66. The chairperson of the Board shall be entitled to take the chair at every general meeting. If there is no such chairperson or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Directors present may choose one of themselves to act, or if there is only one Director present, he shall be chairperson if willing to act. If there is no Director present and willing to act, the members present shall choose one of themselves present to be chairperson of the meeting. At any general meeting unless a poll is demanded by the chairperson or by at least five members present in person or by proxy for the time being entitled to vote at the meeting, or by a member or members representing not less than five per cent of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting, a declaration by the chairperson that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution. If any votes shall be counted which ought not to have been counted, or might have been rejected, the error shall not vitiate the resolution, unless it be pointed out at the same meeting, and unless it shall in the opinion of the chairperson of the meeting be of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution.

70. If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, it shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the chairperson of the meeting directs (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chairperson shall determine the same and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.
71. The Chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
72. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairperson of a meeting, and a poll demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting without adjournment.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

73. At any general meeting on a show of hands every member (being an individual) who is present in person or by proxy or (being a corporation) is present by proxy or by a duly authorised representative, shall have one vote (save that, where a member appoints more than one proxy, the proxies so appointed are not entitled to vote on a show of hands), and in case of a poll, every member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder.

74. Any person entitled under the Transmission Clause (Article 43) to transfer any shares may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of such shares, provided that he proposes to vote at least 48 hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting (as the case may be). He shall satisfy the Directors of his right to transfer such shares unless the Directors shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof.
75. In the case of joint holders of any share any one of such persons may vote at any meeting either in person or by proxy, in respect of such share as if he were solely entitled thereto; and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting in person or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the Register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several personal representatives of a deceased member in whose sole name any share stands shall for the purposes of this Article be deemed joint holders thereof.
76. Upon a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy, or by attorney or in the case of a company by a representative duly authorized by the company as aforesaid and in accordance with section 606 of the Ordinance.
77. The instrument appointing a proxy (whether a member of the Company or not) shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if such appointor is a corporation, either under Seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney so authorised. A corporation being a member of the Company may appoint as its proxy any officer of such corporation whether a member of the Company or not.
78. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed and any power of attorney under which any member claims to vote for an absent member shall be deposited at the Office of the Company or at such other place within Hong Kong as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, or if an electronic address is specified in the notice of meeting or in the instrument of proxy issued by the Company, sent by electronic means to that address (subject to any conditions or limitations specified therein) not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting, or poll as the case may be, at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it was demanded, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid. A general proxy or power of attorney once duly lodged shall be operative until withdrawn or superseded.

79. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or a power of attorney shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the proxy, or power of attorney, or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, provided no intimation in writing of the death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the Office of the Company before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument of proxy is used.
80. Every instrument of proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall as nearly as circumstances will admit, be in the form specified in Schedule B to these Articles or in such other form or to such other effect as the Directors shall from time to time, notwithstanding the form in the said Schedule approve.
81. No member shall be entitled to present, or to vote on any question, either personally or by proxy, or as proxy for another member, at any general meeting, or upon poll, or be reckoned in a quorum, whilst any call or other sum shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of any of the shares of such member.
82. Any resolution passed by the Directors, notice whereof shall have been given to the members in the manner in which notices are hereinafter directed to be given and which shall, within one month after it shall have been so passed, be ratified and confirmed in writing by members entitled at a poll to three-fifths of the votes shall be as valid and effectual as a resolution of a general meeting, but this Article shall not apply to a resolution for winding up the Company, or to a resolution passed in respect of any matter which by the Ordinance or these Articles ought to be dealt with by Special or Ordinary Resolution.

Where requisite, a proper contract shall be filed in accordance with the Ordinance, and the Directors may appoint any person to sign such contract on behalf of the persons entitled to the dividend or capitalised fund, and such appointment shall be effective.

The books of account shall be kept at the Office or at such other place or places as the Directors think fit, and shall at all times be open to inspection by the Directors.

147. The Directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and books of the Company or any of them, shall be open to inspection by the members and no member shall have any right of inspecting any account or other records or document of the Company, unless he is authorised to do so by (a) the Ordinance; (b) an order under section 740 of the Ordinance; (c) the Directors; or (d) an Ordinary Resolution of the Company in general meeting.

148. At the Annual General Meeting, the Directors shall lay before the meeting a profit and loss account and a balance sheet containing a summary of the property and liabilities of the Company made up to a date not more than six months before the meeting from the time when the last preceding account and balance sheet were made up, and such balance sheet and account shall comply with section 431 of the Ordinance, but the Directors shall not be bound to disclose greater details of the result or extent of the trading and transactions of the Company than they may deem expedient.

149. Every such account and balance sheet shall be accompanied by a report of the Directors as to the state and condition of the Company and as to the amount (if any) which they recommend to be paid out of the profits by way of dividend or bonus to the members and the amount (if any) which they propose to carry to the reserve fund according to the provisions in that behalf hereinbefore contained and the account, report and balance sheet shall be signed by three Directors and countersigned by the General Manager.
150. Unless so agreed by all members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, copies of all such documents and any other documents required by the Ordinance to be annexed thereto shall be sent to all the members and to the Auditors not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting such documents that are to be laid.

AUDIT

151. Once at least in every year the accounts of the Company shall be examined and the correctness of the profit and loss account and balance sheet ascertained by one or more auditor or auditors.
152. The Company at each Annual General Meeting shall appoint an auditor or auditors to hold office until the next Annual General Meeting and their appointment, remuneration, rights and duties shall be regulated by Division 5 of Part 9 of the Ordinance.
153. Every account of the Directors when audited and approved by a general meeting shall be conclusive except as regards any error discovered therein within three months next after the approval thereof. Whenever any such error is discovered within that period, the account shall forthwith be corrected and henceforth shall be conclusive.

NOTICES

154. A notice may be served by the Company upon any member either personally or by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter, envelope or wrapper, addressed to such member at his registered place of address.
155. Each holder of registered shares, whose registered place of address is not in Hong Kong, may from time to time notify in writing to the Company an address in Hong Kong, which shall be deemed to be his registered place of address within the meaning of Article 154.

156. As regards those members who have no registered place of address in Hong Kong, a notice posted up in the Office shall be deemed to be well served on them at the expiration of twenty-four hours after it is so posted up.
157. Any notice required to be given by the Company to the members or any of them, and not expressly provided for by these Articles, shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement.
158. Any notice by a Court of law or otherwise, required or allowed to be given by the Company to the members or any of them by advertisement, shall be sufficiently advertised if advertised once in two daily newspapers in Hong Kong.
159. All notices shall, with respect to any registered shares to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the Register and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such share.
160. Any notice sent by post shall be deemed to have been served on the day following that on which the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the same is posted and in proving such service it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the notice was properly addressed and posted. A certificate in writing signed by any Director or other officer of the Company, that the letter, envelope or wrapper containing the notice was so addressed and posted shall be conclusive evidence thereof.
161. Every person who, by operation of law, transfer, or other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share which, previously to his name and address being entered on the Register, shall be duly given to the person from whom he derives his title to such shares.
162. Any notice or document sent by post to or left at the registered address of any member in pursuance to these Articles shall, notwithstanding such member be then deceased and whether or not the Company have notice of his death, be deemed to have been duly served in respect of any registered shares, whether held solely or jointly with other persons by such member until some other person be registered in his stead as the holder or joint holder thereof, and such service shall for all purposes of these Articles be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or document on his personal representatives and all persons, if any, jointly interested with him in any such shares.

163. The signature to any notice to be given by the Company may be written or printed.

164. Where a given number of days' notice or notice extending over any other period is required to be given, the day of service shall, unless it is otherwise provided, be counted in such number of days or other period, but this Article does not apply to a notice convening a meeting to pass a Special Resolution.

WINDING UP

165. If the Company is wound up and a surplus remains after the payment of debts proved in the winding up, the liquidator may, with the required sanction, divide amongst the members in specie or kind in whole or any part of the assets of the Company (whether they consist of property of the same kind or not) and may, for this purpose, set a value the liquidator thinks fair on any property to be so divided.

166. The liquidator may, with the required sanction, vest the whole or part of those assets in trustees on trust for the benefit of the contributors that the liquidator, with the required sanction, thinks fit but a member must not be compelled to accept any shares or other securities on which there is any liability.

167. In these Articles, "required sanction" means the sanction of a special resolution of the Company and any other sanction required by the Ordinance.

168. In the event of a winding-up of the Company in Hong Kong, every member of the Company who is not for the time being in Hong Kong shall be bound, within fourteen days after the passing of an effective resolution to wind up the Company voluntarily, or within the like period after the making of an order for the winding-up of the Company, to serve notice in writing on the Company appointing some person resident in Hong Kong upon whom all summonses, notices, processes, orders and judgments in relation to or under the winding-up of the Company may be served and in default of such nomination, the liquidator of the Company shall be at liberty on behalf of such member to appoint some such person, and service upon any such appointee, whether appointed by the member or the liquidator, shall be deemed to be good personal service on such member for all purposes and where the liquidator makes any such appointment, he shall with all convenient speed, give notice thereof to such member by advertisement in a newspaper circulating in Hong Kong or by a registered letter sent through the post and addressed to such member at his registered place of address, and such notice shall be deemed to be served on the day on which the advertisement appears or the letter is posted.

INDEMNITY

169. Subject to Article 170, the Directors, auditors, secretary and other officers for the time being of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against any liability incurred by them or any of them as the holder of any such office or appointment to a person other than the Company or an associated company of the Company, including in connection with any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the Company or associated company (as the case may be).

170. Article 169 does not apply to:

(a) any liability of a Director to pay:

(c) any liability incurred by an auditor to the extent such liability is not permitted to be indemnified by the Company pursuant to the Ordinance.

171. (a) A reference in paragraph (b) of Article 170 to a conviction, judgment or refusal of relief is a reference to the final decision in the proceedings.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a) of this Article, a conviction, judgment or refusal of relief:

- (i) if not appealed against becomes final at the end of the period for bringing an appeal; or
 - (ii) if appealed against, becomes final when the appeal, or any further appeal, is disposed of.
- (d) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of this Article, an appeal is disposed of if:
- (i) it is determined, and the period for bringing any further appeal has ended; or
 - (ii) it is abandoned or otherwise ceases to have effect.

172. In these Articles, "associated company", in relation to the Company, has the meaning given to it in the Ordinance.
